

Bullying Location Activity Cards

Time needed: Two 30-minute sessions

Recommended Level: Grade 5-8

Categories: Awareness, Role-playing

Common Core Standard(s): Reading informational text, Speaking & Listening

Purpose: Students will create a short drama about bullying in a specific location.

DISCUSSION:

Open with a short reminder discussion about possible locations where bullying can take place.

Students will be put into small groups and be given a card from below. The card will name a location where bullying can take place.

ACTIVITY:

In groups, students will create a short drama (2-3 minutes) about bullying that takes place in the location named by their card.

Students should write two different endings to their scenario; one positive, one negative.

Each group will act out its scenario, including the two different endings.

FOLLOW-UP:

At the end of the drama presentations, the class will do a quick review of each situation and decide which one had the most positive and effective ending of the two.
